TRADITION AND INNOVATION

LauroL Germany is an established brand of NM-Germany GmbH, representing the highest standards in the field of lubricants and operating fluids. Since 1986, we have been developing and producing a comprehensive range of engine oils, gear oils, industrial and hydraulic oils, as well as products for agriculture, construction, and marine applications. Our portfolio also includes antifreeze, technical fluids, additives, and AdBlue. With state-of-the-art technology and genuine passion, we ensure that machines, vehicles, and systems operate reliably and efficiently.

PREMIUM QUALITY FOR THE HIGHEST DEMANDS

Our lubricants and operating fluids meet the diverse and demanding requirements of modern engines, transmissions, and industrial systems. Whether high-performance engine oil, robust hydraulic fluid, or specialized solutions for construction, agriculture, or marine – LauroL products stand for reliability, efficiency, and durability. For us, quality begins long before the finished product – it starts with the development process and the careful selection of raw materials. We guarantee the highest standards our customers around the world can depend on.
